

Historical Newspapers Online

There is no one-stop shopping for newspapers but the following will help...

- Chronicling America – Free - Library of Congress Historical Newspapers 1836-1922
https://familysearch.org/learn/wiki/en/Library_of_Congress_Chronicling_America
- Small Town Newspapers – Free - Over 250 small town papers - 1865 to present
<http://www.smalltownpapers.com/>
- Google Newspapers – Free - Google is no longer scanning newspapers but an archive search is available. <http://news.google.com/newspapers>
- Online Historical Newspapers – A finding aid to online newspapers
<https://sites.google.com/site/onlinenewspapersite/Home>
- More Finding aids to online newspapers -
 1. Research Wiki on FamilySearch.org - 'Digital Historical Newspapers'
 2. Wikipedia - 'Online Newspaper Archives'
- Obituaries – Use a Google search, Legacy.com and DeathIndexes.com
- ProQuest Obituaries – Available using your public library card and accessing their genealogy online resources. Offers seven large city newspapers: Atlanta, Boston, Chicago (2), Los Angeles, New York and Washington.
- Arizona Digital Newspaper Program - <http://adnp.lib.az.us/>
- Mesa FamilySearch Library – offers many subscription sites that include varied newspaper collections
 1. NewspaperArchive.com
 2. Ancestry.com
 3. American Ancestors (NEHGS)
 4. World Vital Records
 5. Godfrey Memorial Library
 6. Fold 3
 7. Find My Past
- Well known subscription sites:
 1. NewspaperArchive.com
 2. GenealogyBank.com
 3. Newspapers.com