

Women In The Civil War

A woman's place was in the home.

Various roles: factory workers, head of household, farmers, nurses, business owners, soldiers, spies, and more.

Sewing Circles formed in the north and south to make uniforms, blankets, clothing, tents.

Soldier's Aid Societies

No organized systems for supplies, caring for the sick, wounded, killed

Unsanitary conditions causing diseases killed 2 men for every man killed in battle

WCAR

US Sanitary Commission

Differences between women living in the North versus the South

Famous women of the Civil War