

“TURNING THE HEARTS OF THE CHILDREN TO THEIR FATHERS”

Youth Technical Skills and Family History. A Perfect Match! COLLEEN MILLETT, SERVICE MISSIONARY MESA, AZ FAMILYSEARCH LIBRARY

Mesa AZ FamilySearch Library: www.mesafsl.org

CLICK ON THE “YOUTH” LOGO AND BEGIN THE JOURNEY.

(You can also sign up for the monthly newsletter and follow the “Youth Corner” featured monthly.)

Mesa AZ FamilySearch Library Youth Corner: Take the time to introduce your youth to this website. The Youth section provides: http://mesafsl.org/YouthPrograms/Youth_and_Family.html

- Webcasts for training
- Links to use for all groups and ages
- Classes available at the library
- Inspirational Quotes to use
- Materials to use when teaching
- News and video updates

OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUTH:

There are many different ways to involve your youth in family history. Take the initiative to look for meaningful training classes. We feature two in our class today:

- “4K Race to the Finish:” A “Youth Family History Consultant” class being offered at the Mesa AZ FamilySearch Library. http://mesafsl.org/YouthPrograms/Youth_and_Family.html Navigate down to “Race Flag.”
- Leland Moon, provides online training in short video class found at the FamilySearch “Training Center”. You can find these classes by going to familysearch.org, clicking on the “Help Center” and selecting “Learning Center”. The class is listed under Popular Courses: <https://familysearch.org/learningcenter/lesson/family-tree-training-lessons-and-videos/818>

Family Tree Training Lessons and Videos

- Ever thought about where your name came from. Try a fun activity in your home for you and your youth. Research where and why you were named. It’s not even necessary to have been named from an ancestor, it is more the journey, interacting with each other, strengthening the bonds as you interact with one another. Check out our video “My Name is Wyard” found in the youth video section . <http://mesafsl.org/YouthPrograms/WebcastsAndNews.html>

- Elder Neil L. Andersen's has issued a temple challenge. A rewarding experience for your youth and family. Add your name to the Challenge Counter today.
<https://www.lds.org/topics/family-history/temple-challenge?lang=eng#watch=49339905690967434930-eng->
- Indexing: Great place to begin learning about the many documents available while serving to digitize them. Foundation of all the records available. Found on familysearch.org
- Google Drive or Evernote-Amazing tools available free so you can have everything with you when you need it at any computer and even share it.
- Wikipedia-The free encyclopedia
- Wikimedia is a global movement whose mission is to bring free educational content to the world.

WEBSITES TO CHECK OUT:

- "Finding family information through DPLA,"
- "If I'd Only Known! Beginner Genealogy Mistakes."