

MESA FAMILYSEARCH LIBRARY WEBSITE

mesafsl.org

Treasures to be found behind homepage links

Header at the top of each page includes (1) index of obituaries in selected Arizona newspapers
(2) online Arizona birth and death certificates (75 years from birth, 50 years from death)

Classes:

Monthly Tuesday night Priesthood and Ward Consultant training
Monthly class schedule for Mesa FSL patrons and online classes and webinars at FamilySearch
Links to U.S. & British Isles Research Training lessons

Youth and Family Programs:

(1) Download online classes to help youth learn, do, and teach
(2) Download program with activities to help teach children about Family History
(3) Family History ideas to use for Family Home Evening and Sunday activities
(4) Family reunion ideas
(5) Scout and Primary family history requirements

Bulletin Board with upcoming events, special notices, scheduling tours, other Arizona genealogy societies

Spanish translation of many training and search sites

Websites:

Direct links to many favorite websites
U.S. – every state has multiple searchable links
International – all major countries have searchable links

Research Helps – Powerpoint Presentations and Quick Starts with numerous searchable links for several countries and other important topics (such as immigration, land & probate, military, native American)

Vital Records and Mega-Marts – archives and other valuable links for each state, including newspapers

Over 60 webcasts of a multitude of family history subjects, many with links to handouts

Digital books – 100 books (download) of families, states, countries, historical subjects

Forms, including Research Log, blank pedigree charts and family group sheets, blank U.S. and Canadian Census worksheets with clear headings for each column

Past newsletters with a summary of the tips and training for each month, plus monthly Area Newsletters

Annual Mesa FamilySearch Library Family History Conferences with summaries of classes and links to class handouts

Links to FamilySearch - Plan stake Family Discovery Day (Find-Take-Teach), Tree Training lessons and videos, Help Center and Family History Guide for articles on getting started and training videos

Cemeteries:

All gravesites at Mesa City Cemetery, all Arizona counties with cemetery links, additional Arizona and U.S. cemetery searches

“Life Story Room” appointments and link to “Interview Questions”