

Free Seminar TOUCHING MY ROOTS

WHEN:

February 24, 2012
At 7pm To 8:30pm

WHERE:

Mesa Family History Training Center
464 E. 1st Ave Mesa, AZ
(West of the Temple)

No Pre-Registration Required
For additional information or questions call
Mesa Family History Center
480-964-1200

ABOUT JOYCE REESE McCOLLUM

Joyce Reese McCollum began her journey as a genealogist in 1985 after learning that both her maternal great-grandfathers were Civil War Veterans, having served in the United States Colored Troops. Since an early retirement, she has devoted her time to genealogy research.

Ms. McCollum is Co-Administrator for www.LowCountryAfricana.com , www.africanaheritage.com and www.afriquest.com .

At present, Ms. McCollum works on the websites, researching for herself and others. She participates in local genealogy groups, conducts workshops and lectures. She is currently preparing for the upcoming conferences in Salt Lake and Las Vegas. She is also documenting the history of African American residents in the Phoenix area as part of the Arizona Centennial observances.